QUESTIONS ANSWERED
From the comments I read in the press about the Lamson trial and some of the suggestions made concerning the third hearing of that cause celebre, my mind is groping around to discover an answer to the question whether we have unwittingly abolished the jury system in California?
Various conclusions are expressed as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant for the death of Alene Lamson in the cottage on the Stanford campus that day in May several years ago. There is a sharp line of division on the question of whether guilt was proved in previous trials and also whether the State is justified in going to the expense of trying Lamson again. As the latter course of action has already been decided upon it is now futile to talk about it. The district attorney insists and Lamson's shows no outward fear, anyway, of the result.
SOME GOOD SUGGESTIONS
Among the suggestions made for conduct governing the third trial are the following:
"Rule out testimony of so-called penologists, who try to prove that such and such a thing could not have happened—all for a financial consideration."
"Stop quibbling and quarrelling on the part of the opposing attorneys."
"Hasten the selection of a jury."
"Insist that the testimony be relevant to the question of guilt or innocence and bring the whole proceeding back to common sense determination of the facts."
"Nearly all of these suggestions are sound and would tend to expedite the trial; however, as to the suggestion as to the penologists my observation has been, after reading the testimony, that the prosecution was just as ignorant in this respect as the defense. Trials should not degenerate into 'playhouses' and 'stage dramas' for the entertainment of the public. Our courts are too sacred to permit the staging of such travesties to justice and their dignity. Any change of procedure which will eliminate the objectionable features cited above will be welcomed."
WE PART COMPANY
But now comes a suggestion to which I am constitutionally opposed. "But the judge should not."

Encampments of County Hold 3 Degree Ceremony

With several hundred visitors in attendance, the Contra Costa Encampment of Odd Fellows held degree work at the Odd Fellows building last evening.
The three Encampments of the county staged the work. Contra Costa conferred the Patriarch's degree; Crockett put on the Golden Rule degree while the Antioch Encampment conferred the Royal Purple degree.
In addition to the three encampments noted above, the Canton Oakland No. 11 and the Sunset Encampment, of Alameda, turned out in full force to attend the ceremony.
Earl Vandy, chief patriarch of the Richmond organization, presided over the meeting.
Ellis Shaw, Ed Johnson and Lloyd Beam had charge of the Dutch lunch that followed the affair.

Justices Will Meet To Study Speed Law Case

FRESNO, May 24.—UP—Justices of the peace puzzling over the legal effect of recent higher court rulings that there was no actual speed limit of 45 miles an hour in California may get together to decide a uniform policy.
The meeting would be either in Sacramento or Fresno.
Enforcement has been split by the decisions. Alameda, Mariposa and Stanislaus justices agreed to require officials in Fresno, Kings and Tulare counties to announce they would continue to penalize violations of the 45-mile limit and let offenders argue about it in court.

SOLONS IN ROW OVER BUDGET PROGRAM

EPICS ADMIT MOVE MADE FOR RECALL

SACRAMENTO, May 24.—UP—Battle lines to determine the fate of the proposed $352,000,000 budget bill and the distribution of a new $115,000,000 tax burden were being drawn tonight after the Assembly had split on the financial issue along partisan lines.
A definite break between opposition forces, accompanied by an admission from EPIC - Democratic leaders that they would attempt to block passage of the budget bill until satisfactory revenue measures had been approved, marked first consideration of the budget bill.
NO MAJORITY
An attempt to set the budget bill for a special order of business Monday provided the test vote and found administration leaders unable to muster a two-thirds majority necessary to give the measure preference on the calendar early next week.
The motion presented by Assemblyman C. C. Cottrell, San Jose, chairman of the lower house ways and means committee and administration leader backed three votes of the necessary 54.
LOOK FOR RECALL
During the personal arguments following the stormy debate on the assembly floor, Assemblyman William Jones, EPIC spokesman, admitted the justification of charges that they were "looking toward the recall of the governor."
Cottrell further charged that Democrats were guilty of the most "unAmerican act in the history of the state" in assertingly attempting to recall the governor.

Hoover In Head Of S. A. Warning On Robbed By NRA Policy Local Yegg

PALO ALTO, May 24.—UP—Former President Herbert Hoover today delivered a new arraignment of the National Industrial Recovery Act, warning that American labor will rise against "Fascist practices inherent in the NRA."
He renewed recent charges that the act is "unAmerican."
"American labor will not long stand for price fixing limitation of output, stifling of competition, or any other of the monopolistic and Fascist practices inherent in the NRA," he declared.
"Its enforcement by bureaucratic coercion, intimidation and boycott are not American."
"The purpose of the act so far as it abolishes sweating through minimum wages and hours, and so far as it abolishes child labor and unfair practices, is right," he conceded.
"But they should be accomplished by other than Fascist methods if they are to be truly liberal and progressive," he insisted.
In a recent published statement Mr. Hoover urged that the only action for the House of Representatives to take regarding the NRA was to abolish it altogether.

SERA Workers Must Register With NRS Here

If SERA workers expect to retain their jobs and direct relief, they must register with the National Relief Service at once, Ralph Wood, head of the local NRS announced yesterday.
Wood announced that he had just completed a survey, which showed that many holding SERA jobs are not on his register rolls. A new policy demands that all such workers be registered, as their return to private employment depends on such registration. Industries have promised to draw their men from federal rolls as much as possible.
Failure of SERA workers to register with the NRA will be construed to mean that they do not desire private work, and they will be dropped from relief, Wood said.
To aid workers in the eastern part of the county, a re-employment office will be opened in the Pittsburg city hall.

Legion To Hold Mobilization Tests Today

Richmond Legion post members today will participate in an emergency relief mobilization, according to Lloyd Spies, commander of the Post.
The call will be made by means of five blasts of the siren located at the city corporation yards on Fourteenth street sometime during the day.
All Legionnaires will report either by telephoning to the Memorial Hall or by appearing there in person.
NOTICE OF INTENTION
The following notice of intention to wed was filed with the county clerk at Martinez yesterday:
Roy Fenton Clark, 24, and Ava Elizabeth Clark, 19, both of Pittsburg, Colo.

FIRE FIEND PROSECUTION IS HALTED

Pending an investigation of the age of William Drefs, charged with arson in setting fire to the lumber yards of the Brentwood Lumber company this week, no preliminary examination will be held.

Probation Officer T. Young of San Joaquin county informed Sheriff John A. Miller that the youth is not 18 years of age.
Miller has dispatched Deputy Sheriffs Ralph Harrison and Sal Jimeno to Lodi and Lodi, where Drefs formerly resided, to check upon his history and his age and the possibility he may be linked with incendiary fires in those communities.

Miller declared that the youth's probation of two years from San Joaquin county for entering a store, has admitted to him more than 100 minor thefts.
The sheriff declared that if Young is able to produce a birth certificate, as he claims he can, showing Drefs is under 18 years, the youth's case will be turned over to juvenile courts.

Sons Of Legion Will Entertain Fathers June 14

Numerous coming events were planned last evening when the Sons of the American Legion met last night at Memorial Hall under the direction of Captain Henry Zimmerman and Advisor Carl Stender.

Reports were heard on the above trip enjoyed by the boys on April 29. Many members attended this affair.
A swimmer party at the beach and a swimming party at the city pool were planned for the near future.

Favorable Report On Ship Subsidy

WASHINGTON, May 24.—UP—The senate commerce committee favorably reported the administration's ship subsidy bill to the senate today.
The bill, approved unanimously, abolishes the present system of government mail contracts and substitutes a direct subsidy for ship construction and operation.
Committee chairman, R. S. Corland, D. N. Y., estimated that passage of the bill would save the government from three to eight million dollars annually.

Huge Naval Sale Of Big Bill Passed Banking Firm By Senators Now Denied

WASHINGTON, May 24.—UP—The Senate passed a record piece of legislation today, voting 55 to 18 to provide $460,000,000 including funds for 24 new battleships.

The new vessels are part of the program to make the United States navy second to none by 1942. The House provided funds for only 12 ships, but it was explained at the time of passage that the money for the other 12 would be provided later in a deficiency bill. The Senate voted to authorize $29,380,000 for the construction of all the vessels.
The new ships would include one aircraft carrier, two light cruisers, three destroyers over 1,500 tons, 12 destroyers not over 1,500 tons, and six submarines.

SEAMAN IS ARRESTED IN RAIDS HERE

Charged with malicious mischief, M. R. LeBaron, 24, a striking seaman and alleged picket leader residing in the western section of the city, was freed on $500 bond last night, pending his hearing in the court of Police Judge C. A. Odell this morning at 10 o'clock.

LeBaron was arrested at 4 A. M. Friday while driving an automobile allegedly used in two raids on Richmond homes on Thursday evening. He was arrested by Berkeley police officers near Albany following broadcasting of the license number of an automobile claimed to have been used in the two raids.

LeBaron was alone in the machine at the time of the arrest. He refused to make a statement and would not divulge to police names of any possible companions.

After having been held for the entire day, bail was finally posted by a professional Oakland bail bond broker shortly after 10 o'clock last night and the man was released, pending his hearing to day.

HOME ATTACKED

Police believe that LeBaron is one of the men responsible for the attack on the home of Peter Boljat, 1121 Pennsylvania avenue and at the home of H. Garcia, 657 Twelfth street. It was Garcia who took several shots at the raiders as they fled from his home. An examination of LeBaron's car failed to show any bullet holes.
Boljat, whose front room of his home was completely ruined by bottles of creosote hurled through the windows by the wreckers, declared yesterday that he believed the raiders mistook his home for that of a seaman who lives in the neighborhood.
Garcia, who fired several shots at the car, is employed as a seaman on a Standard Oil boat.

Following the meeting, which was presided over by Robert Polan, light refreshments were served.

The DAILY WASHINGTON

MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Recent White House callers say they have found a new man sitting behind the President's desk.

Passerelli, they explain, has adopted a new fighting spirit. Also a new enthusiasm, a new freshness, and a new vigor for the fray.

This change they attribute to two things. One is the showdown with Big Business. The other is the showdown with certain members of his own party in Congress.

In regard to both, his friends maintain, Roosevelt has come to the conclusion that his previous policy of compromise was a mistake.

For months he endeavored to win the support of the business world. But now, they say, he has decided to fight.

One of his chief spokesmen on the policy was Raymond Moley, the Roosevelt confidant. Moley, they say, has been a key figure in the administration's policy.

But the rising denunciation of the United States Chamber of Commerce, which Roosevelt has called a "house of horrors," has changed his mind.

A somewhat similar condition existed between the White House and the group of Democratic Senators who have been such bitter critics of the New Deal in Congress.

Their motto is: "Thomas Jefferson made the Democratic Party. Franklin Roosevelt will wreck it."

But because they were Democrats, Roosevelt hoped to win them over, went out of his way to compromise. Now, his friends say, he has about concluded it is useless.

The American public, they have decided, has greater respect for a straight-talker than for a politician. This was the motive behind the vigorously worded veto.

And this strategy may be expected in the future.

DOUGHTON'S TOMSTONE. Representative Bob Doughton is very sensitive about his tombstone.

The veteran North Carolina legislator was presiding over the House during a rushing declaration by the governor of the State of North Carolina.

Senator Doughton, father and grandfather of the House, was a member of the House of Representatives for 40 years.

At this point Doughton's cap fell. "The gentleman's time has expired," he snapped.

"My Chairman, may I have an additional five minutes," asked Doughton confidently.

"Certainly not," replied Doughton.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT

By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, May 24.—UP—One of the most important facts in the career of Adolph S. Ochs received no mention in the accounts published when the owner of the New York Times died.

Mr. Ochs was a newspaper publisher in Chattanooga a when the opportunity to take over the morning band Times arose in 1896. When he came up to the big city several years for the northwestern of the New York daily were advanced by various corporations and financial syndicates.

Mr. Ochs rejected them and, according to his biography, banked all his own assets into the paper so that he could have complete editorial control.

That was not the whole story, however. In order to carry out this policy, Mr. Ochs was given a loan of $75,000 by Jacob Schiff, the famous New York financier and philanthropist. It was this support which enabled Mr. Ochs to reject the other plans.

Without Schiff's assistance, the Chattanooga publisher would probably have had to return to his home town, and the history of the New York Times might have been an entirely different one.

ONLY HUMAN.—It took a playwright to suggest the answer to a problem which has been puzzling business men for some time. The delays and annoyances of the air mail service have long been a bother to business houses in town, but no one seemed to know what the trouble was. A new play which arrived on Broadway a couple of weeks ago offers a clue.

"Flying Zero" is a play of a pilot who is a mail carrier. The hero, Dizzy Davis, is a dare-devil aviator who recklessly perches the heavens in breath-taking exploits.

Unfortunately, Dizzy is also susceptible to the charms of the fair sex. At one point of the play he relates that once, while carrying a cargo of General Farley's mail, he chanced to look upward as he skimmed over the suburb of a large city. Below he saw a bevy of maidens sporting themselves in the swimming pool of a palatial chalet, with no idea, however, that they were carrying a cargo of mail.

Thereafter, Dizzy's mail, he chanced to look upward as he skimmed over the suburb of a large city. Below he saw a bevy of maidens sporting themselves in the swimming pool of a palatial chalet, with no idea, however, that they were carrying a cargo of mail.

Filipino Solon Is Shot By Politician

MANILA, Saturday, May 25.—EP J. Prospero Sanidad, a member of the Philippine House of Representatives, was reported shot and seriously wounded today at the town of Narvacan, in Ilocos Sur Province.

Fernando Abella, former president, or mayor, or Narvacan, and 20 others were charged with participating in the shooting. A long-standing political feud was blamed for the affair.

M'QUATE DIES FOR MURDER OF AGED WOMAN

POLSON PRISON, Calif., May 24.—UP—Eleven minutes after Tullie McQuate, 33, was sprung through the gallows here today for the murder of Edna Straw, San Diego reclus, he was pronounced dead.

McQuate killed the elderly woman for $250, the state held, after having lived with her for a year. He stuffed her dismembered body into gunny sacks, which he threw into San Diego bay.

The murder, it was contended, occurred October 12 or 13, 1933 and McQuate spent money extravagantly for several days after. The $250 was missing from the woman's house.

Because McQuate had served two other terms in Ohio, Governor Frank F. Merriam could do nothing beyond giving one reprieve for the supreme court to study the case. The court refused to intercede.

The murderer was unable to sleep last night and passed his final hours playing solitaire. He left no messages.

Approaching the last 13 stairs, he brushed aside helping hands: "I want to walk up those steps alone," he said.

He did walk alone and at the top waiting executioners snapped a hood over his head, slipped the rope tight around his neck and dropped him into space.

WHIST PARTY IS HELD BY LOCAL CHURCH
With a record crowd in attendance, the annual whist party of St. Mark's Catholic Church was held last evening at the Red Men's Hall.

The main auditorium of the building was crowded to a capacity and extra chairs and tables had to be placed in the lobby and hallways to take care of the record-breaking crowd.

Many prizes were awarded, including several large boxes of groceries.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly rosy and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out ten pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just dumps in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Send a 10-cent stamp to drug stores, 219 E. C. St. O. O.

Heat Cramp Is Due to Loss of Water and Salts From High Temperatures

By CLAUD NORTH CHRISMAN, M.D.

IT is a simple physiological fact that exercise of any sort will afford some appreciable rise in the normal temperature. There is even a difference of a few tenths of a degree between the acts of standing up and lying down. Mental exertion may raise the temperature, not only of the head, but of the entire body. Being "hot-headed" is not a mere empty phrase, but indicates an increase in the stimulus to certain muscular activity due to unusual vibration in the brain tissues. Witness the many deeds of violence committed in a state of mind that is excited by being called "the heat of passion."

where metabolism is taking place most actively. Hence, since we are largely made up of muscular tissue, it is in muscular exercise that our heat is most abundantly produced. Add to this case of vigorous muscular labor the conditions which require excessive heat in the surrounding atmosphere and we have an exaggerated situation which must in some way be counteracted.

Heat cramp occurring in persons exposed to high temperatures for long periods has been studied very thoroughly. It occurs particularly among furnace stokers, miners, workers in steel mills, and others subject to great heat and excessive perspiration.

THE spasms attack different groups of muscles in succession, particularly those of the abdomen and arms and legs. They seldom occur over twenty-four hours, but they cause excessive pain and exhaustion. Beyond the severe pain, the danger in heat cramp lies in the super-heating of the body.

Two or three things can happen. The blood becomes carbonized, and the walls of the vessels and veins enter a state of paralysis so that the blood stream is slowed down. This starves the heart or the brain centers, or both. There is a suspicion that if a serious stage is reached, the high degree of heat causes a coagulation of the muscle substances.

At any rate, we have these rather frequent cases of muscular cramp under high temperatures. Indeed, all that makes it possible for men to work in certain superheated positions is the fact that their work requires great activity, which seems to keep the heart going and the heat causes profuse perspiration.

It is generally agreed now that the cramps are due to the extreme loss of water and salts from the blood on account of the sweating and because of the lack of fluid, toxic elements are formed in the blood. But without free elimination through the skin, as in perspiration, the heart and circulation could not function in the intense heat.

THUS, the continuous drinking of fluids is encouraged to replace the bulk of water eliminated, and further relief is secured by adding common salt in small amounts to the drinking water. Most of the trouble can thus be avoided by the copious drinking of slightly salty water, a scant teaspoonful of table salt to a pint of water which has been cooled to about 50 degrees F.

Some factories provide salt tablets for their stokers and puddlers, but the pellets are not as palatable as the saline solution, though they are more convenient.

If the heat cramp is suffered, the condition is relieved by intravenous injection of baking soda solution. Obviously, any distress caused by super-heating of the body calls for reducing that heating process. The sufferer must be removed to a cooler spot where air is moving. As the circulation has been partially arrested, rubbing the cramped muscles and moving the afflicted limbs will relieve the pain. This must be done judiciously so as not to further overload the heart.

Dr. Chrisman offers readers the privilege of addressing questions to him care of this column. He will answer questions of general interest in his regular daily column on this page.

Queen Mary's Style Still Good

By TALBOT LAKE

IT USED to be the habit of funsters to make fun of Queen Mary's hats, but as the good Queen presides over the Silver Jubilee of her King's reign it comes to the mind of this department, at least, that she has outlasted the jokes and proved to the world that her ideas of style are about right. At least, as her years increase, that dignity and royal mien which are so characteristic have had the effect of putting her above the mere whims of fashion and have made her nineteenth century gowns look quite the thing.

The Queen, who is a shy being, has had to endure the life of a goldfish through being in the public gaze. Yet, through it she has acquired a quiet sort of sureness which has endeared her to her subjects and enabled her to rule most of the business side of her family's doings. Her devotion to her own fashion mode is an example of how stick-to-itiveness has won out.

She is considered a sound judge of business and household affairs, and it is not unusual for members of the family, and even servants, to come to her for advice on sundry subjects. She is always gracious in such cases, and tempers her serious reply with some softer personal reference. At home—which means Windsor Castle—she is called May by members of the family.

The Queen speaks in a pleasant contralto voice, and it is said that when she was young she used to sing to her parents after dinner. Good health has been a useful adjunct, for she's had nothing worse than a couple of colds during her rule of the House of Windsor. She likes to dance, but unfortunately the King is a poor foot at it.

She likes a glass of sherry before lunch, and afterward a Virginia straw-tipped cigarette. The Prince of Wales taught her to smoke, but this information is still considered unofficial. She also likes strawberries out of season. After an Air Force dinner given for the King, he brought home to her all the extra-fine South African strawberries that were left over.

Traveler Aid Is the Handy Cosmetic Kit

By JACQUELINE HUNT

MAY and June are months dedicated to brides and voyagers. Whether yours is a wedding or a cruise, it hints of romance, new scenes, and new exciting friends. You will want to be as completely enchanting and beautiful as possible.

Much of your success will depend on how cleverly you make your plans in advance. Since the wedding is usually followed by a honeymoon trip of some kind, much the same advice applies to you whether you are a bride or a traveler. You will want to have as much time free to enjoy yourself as possible.

You should not have to spend much time fussing with your skin and hair when there are beautiful things to see and thrilling things to do. That means you should get a really good permanent before you set off on your journey, and you should have your skin just as soft, clear and lovely as it is possible to make it.

It also means that you must show no small measure of wisdom in choosing the cosmetics that you tuck away into your new luggage. Remember that you will want to take as few bags as possible. That means the things you take must be exactly right, and you should spend as much time as you can shopping around until you find what you want.

You will find one of the little traveling cases of cosmetics more convenient than buying individual packages of your favorite creams, tonics and powders. They are compactly arranged to take up a minimum of space and to lessen the danger of breakage. Most of them contain nearly a month's supply of cleansing cream, tissue cream, foundation cream or lotion, powder, tonic, and in some cases rouge and eye make-up. The prices are friendly to every pocketbook. You can find these "sets" in any of the leading brands of cosmetics and in prices ranging from $4.50 to $20.00.

If you will spend much time at the beach or on deck where there is danger of sunburn, be prepared with a good suntan oil and a soothing ointment in case you accidentally get a burn. Take along a bottle of eye lotion. It is soothing and restful when your eyes are tired from the glare of the sun and the dust of traveling.

A time-table of beauty events for brides who want to be glamorous is contained in the leaflet, "Beauty For Stripped Brides." Just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you would like a copy.

Looks Heavy, But Isn't

Quite the newest and smartest thing for street wear is this Adrian designed suit worn by Constance Bennett of the screen. The suit is fashioned from black light weight woolen and features an interesting lapel and cuff trim of ocelot. Hat and accessories are in black.

Modes and Manners

QUESTION: "I have been entertained twice at the home of a wealthy cousin, and would like to reciprocate. As my home is very modest, and entertaining facilities extremely limited, would it be in order to take her out to a restaurant for dinner?—E. L."

ANSWER: "I would be more in the spirit of true hospitality if you invited her to dine at your home. Use your best table linen, your best china, and invite a few congenial friends and serve the best dinner you know how to prepare. Make her welcome, Rich or poor, the perfect host or hostess can do no more."

Beauty Tips

QUESTION: "When I go out in the evening I like to dress up and look as different from my everyday self as possible (I have a position that requires smocks and the plainest hair arrangement). Please tell me how to arrange my hair. I am blonde and rather short. I am fairly well-built, however, and look taller than I am.—Dusty."

If your features are regular, try parting your hair in the center with just a few wispy bangs to soften the forehead line. Comb it back off the face and have the entire back of your head a mass of soft brush curls. Get a braid of hair that matches your own in color and pin it coronet-fashion over the crown of your head and conceal the ends in your ringlets.

MODERN WOMEN

A Twin Sister Who Worries About the Heart Affairs of Both at Seventeen

By MARIAN MAY'S MARTIN

TWIN sisters who are lonely—there is something all wrong right at the start. They should be boon companions and sufficient unto themselves, at least until they are past seventeen. Naturally, they are romantic, but one at least of these twins takes life and love too seriously.

"Dear Mrs. Martin: We are two lonely twin sisters, age seventeen. Don't you think that is rather young to be in love? My sister and I are really good pals, and she tells me of her troubles. She has been going with a boy for two years, although he is just two years older than she. She loves him dearly. But Dad doesn't approve of him, and every time he comes up Dad gets mad and says horrible things to her. I am afraid he is doing the wrong thing."

Dad says if he really loves her he would work, but he hasn't, and says he can't get work anywhere. Do you think that Dad is right? This boy seems to love her with all his heart. As for myself, boys do not interest me any more. When I was quite young I went with the boys, and I loved a boy so dearly, but he proved that he didn't love me, and since I have gotten over that I never had any more use for them, and it bores me when one is near. Wanda."

SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD girl telling me what she used to do when she was very young. What, pray, are you now? For one thing, much too young to be blasé about love and bored by boys. You are the only one, I feel sure, who could take your plight seriously. You will laugh at it yourself before you are very much older and when you begin to have the slightest inkling of what love is.

Your twin's affairs are what interest you most, and so I am going to declare myself on the side of your father. A boy of nineteen is much too young to marry or to tie himself by any vows. If he is not in school, and I rather he isn't, he should be working before he has any right to suggest marriage, even at a remote date, with your sister or any other girl. How could she marry him if he has not even a job?

Be young and carefree girls while you may. Don't take your boy friends so much to heart. Ever so many attractive and eligible young men will no doubt come your way, and you would be silly girls to engage yourselves to the first men who take your fancy.

We are so constituted that our ideas on many things and on many people change as we gather years and experience. A woman of twenty-seven, let us say, has very different ideas of what makes a good husband than she did when she was in her teens.

YOUR sister will probably live to laugh over her fancied affection for this boy and to thank her stars that she did not marry him. Your father is a better judge of this boy than she is. He sees him as he is—and probably will be—she sees him in the image that her romantic self has pictured. If he loves her with all his heart he will prove it by getting to work in order to have sufficient money to support her. Two attractive twin sisters, still in their teens, have an adventurous life before them, I am sure. I am so anxious not to have you spoil everything by getting off on the wrong foot. You are bound to recover from the phase through which you are passing and to give your heart to some fellow who deserves it.

Be a good companion to your sister, and help her forget all about this boy who seems so unworthy, and do try to realize that your father is doing all he knows how to protect you from your own folly. His ways may be clumsy, but don't forget that you are very precious to him, and that he does not want to hand you over to any men who may not appreciate you and care for you as they should.

Dotted Swisses, Washables, Favored

'AN EYELET, BATISTE

By IRENE VAIL

New York—Dainty women are partial to materials that are none the worse of a tubbing. This season many fabrics have been trained to behave well, even when all lathered up.

There are many dotted Swisses again, just for old time's sake, and still enough eyelet embroidery to make us feel at home.

Dance frocks, from now on, are just as likely to be cotton as not. The organdies, printed, embroidered or plain, are still favored and most of the new cotton lace either white or in pastels, may be washed, ironed, and—what more important—starched. Don't forget the starch.

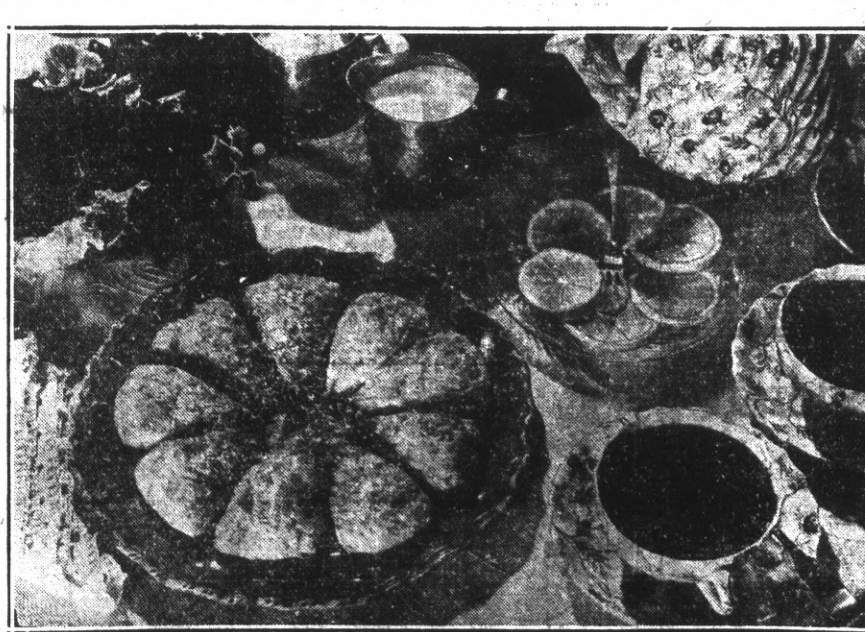

Ingenu dressers, such as cottons are apt to be, are prone to wide childlike sashes in contrast to color. Then there are flower at neck, waist, hem, or just anywhere one feels inclined to wear flowers. Around the neck, high under the chin are as good spots as any.

The trend toward more feminine beachwear that has been becoming more and more evident during the last year has brought with it an interest in the glamorous fabrics, flower patterns, and ones that are bold or dainty, or on pastel grounds, demure prints, humorous scenic prints, all in silks and synthetics, knitted and woven.

Sketched today, the navy blue eyelet embroidered batiste in a large openwork design is effectively finished with white line collar and red silk cord tie, the red being picked up in the buckle. The puff sleeves are a youthful detail.

Novelty fine striped lawn coming bling red, gray and white top is shown in a variation of a shirtwaist frock ornamented with double-breasted button details.

FOR THE AFTERNOON PARTY

LEMON CREAM SCONES—2 cups sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 4 tablespoons butter or other shortening, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 2 eggs, one-third cup light cream. 3 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon shortening and lemon rind. Reserve about 1/2 of one egg white for glaze. Beat remaining eggs well and add cream; add to flour mixture, and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out on slightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll 1/2 inch thick and cut in triangles. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Brush tops lightly with reserved egg white, slightly beaten; sprinkle with mixture of sugar and grated lemon rind. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 minutes or until browned. Makes 18 small scones. (Orange rind may be substituted for lemon rind in this recipe.)

Short Cuts

It is always aggravating for a homemaker to discover some time after the dinner table has been cleared of dishes that she omitted the salad, or forgot to serve the celery, or the cheese with the pie. The best way to avoid such mishaps is to write out a menu of the meal and leave it in a conspicuous place in the kitchen, to be glanced over just before serving dinner, to refresh one's memory as to what there is to serve.

SAYS RECALL IS RACKET OF 'PREYERS'

PITTSBURG, May 24.—That the recall proceedings lodged against him is a "racketing attempt to open Pittsburgh to those who want to prey on the public corruption" was charged today by Mayor H. H. Donovan in his formal answer, while Dr. W. J. Monteverde, replied that "anyone who will thoroughly investigate the charges made against me will readily find that the same are superficial, unfounded and unjust."

The formal answers follow the recall charge preferred against the two councilmen for the Citizens' Recall Committee.

Mayor Donovan states the reason he voted for repeal of the commission form of government was that it had "proved a failure." He said it required councilmen to perform duties for which they did not have time and for which their experience did not qualify them.

The mayor also denied that changing the system of government was "against the will of the majority of the electors of Pittsburgh expressed in their vote last year." He declared that the electors voted only on the question of whether the council should give the commission form a trial.

Regarding the "secret detective report," the mayor said that its publication would have warned those under investigation of the evidence against them.

"Every member of the council, including those now seeking to recall me, knew the contents of these reports," the mayor said. As to the "secret meetings" held by the council, the mayor declared that "executive sessions are necessary where public interest would be injured by public negotiations."

The mayor denied that he has knowledge of the inefficiency in the police department, authority to discharge any officer or that he had "assumed a dictatorial attitude." Instead, he said, "I have been courteous and considerate."

Dr. Monteverde likewise said the commission form of government had proven a failure.

"I firmly believe that the citizens of Pittsburgh will agree that it would have been unwise and improper for me to continue to support that which had proved a failure and detrimental to their interests," he said.

The councilman declared the only pre-election pledge he had made was to support the commission form of government as long as it was successful.

OAKS BEATEN BY TRIBE IN OPENING GAME

(By United Press)
Charles (Gashy) Street's San Francisco Missions, tail-enders in the Coast League almost from the start, earned a determined drive to climb from the cellar Friday as they shut out Portland 4 to 0 in the first game of a new series.

The veteran Walter Beck pitched his best game of the season to date as he allowed but three hits. The Sacramento Senators, next to the Missions in league standings, also displayed unexpected strength in their series opener as they defeated San Francisco, 4 to 2.

The Los Angeles Angels moved back within striking distance of the first place Oakland club as they triumphed 11 to 4. With Neala on the mound, the Angels outined in eight game in the field to stay well in front. Neala was hit for ten strikes while the Angels got 14.

The Oakland Oaks, wavering from their winning streak of earlier games, dropped their first series contest to Seattle 9 to 4.

The Oaks used three pitchers in an attempt to stop the slugging Indians but were put far in the hole by a four run Seattle spurt in the seventh inning.

Oakland 4 10 0
Portland 0 2 2
San Francisco 2 9 0

Loses Control Of Truck, Fourteen Badly Injured

SAN RAFAEL, May 24.—UP—A picnic hayride to celebrate close of school at Marin Junior College for the summer ended in disaster today when the truck on which the celebrants were riding plunged down a steep embankment out of control.

Fourteen riders were injured, five of them seriously. Most severely hurt were Frances Bachl, 17, San Anselmo; Silvia Sanders, 18, niece of Mayor W. L. Soffel of San Anselmo; Mary Black, 18, San Anselmo; Theodore Gilman, 18, San Rafael, and Harold Makinson, 18, San Anselmo.

Leut. Archibald Lyon and Mrs. Lyon of Hamilton Field, the chaplain, suffered cuts and bruises. Police said the brakes apparently failed on a grade on White Hills Road.

Murder Charge Ends, Woman In State Hospital

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—UP—Because Mrs. Lillie Cohn, 66, grandmother who strangled her 11-year-old granddaughter, Margaret Hill, in a "mercy killing" already has been sent to an institution as insane, the state dismissed murder charges against her today.

Mrs. Cohn, after killing the child and attempting suicide, said she had done so because she did not know what would happen after her death to the girl.

Mrs. Cohn is at Mendocino State hospital.

MR. AND MRS. P. J. SCHUMACHER and son, Dr. L. C. Schumacher and Mrs. Julia Schumacher, all of San Francisco, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schumacher, 1757 Gaynor avenue on Wednesday.

ROOSEVELT WILL VETO ANY BONUS

WASHINGTON, May 24.—UP—Any attempt to attach a new bonus plan to the social security bill would result in a veto of the bill, President Roosevelt warned today at his press conference.

The warning came after administration leaders had indicated that a compromise based on the present value of certificates would be the only kind of bonus proposal they would listen to this session. Senator Elmer Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, a Patman bonus leader, spurned the suggestion.

MAJOR MEASURE
Mr. Roosevelt said he considered the social security bill the major measure before this Congress. Any attempt to add extraneous legislation to it, he said, would be met with prompt action.

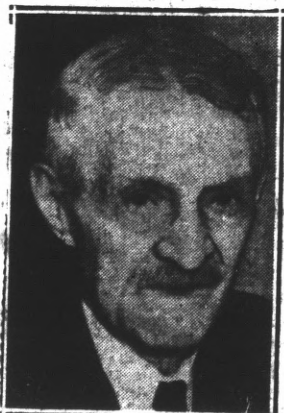

His statement was in reply to a question regarding his willingness to accept a bonus rider. Senator Bennett Champ Clark, Democrat, Missouri, plans to bring the issue up again, but has not yet selected a bill to which to attach it.

COMPROMISE SEEN
Mr. Roosevelt waved aside a question regarding his attitude on a new separate bonus bill.

Earlier, in mentioning the possibility of a compromise, administration leaders made it clear that the initiative would have to come from the bonus bloc. They plan no overtures.

BOND PLAN
Thomas said that if this meant accepting the compromise by Senator Pat Harrison, Democrat,

One Job

BACK IN 1872 William W. Harold answered a want ad in a newspaper and got the job, to go to work for H. W. Johns in New York. Mr. Harold never left that job. He has been at it now for 63 years, and is still at it, with the Johns-Manville Company, though at 86 years of age he works only five days a week. He believes he holds the record.

Mississippi, which the Senate rejected, the Patmanites would not accept it.

"That would not be a compromise," he said. "It would be a surrender."

The Harrison plan was to give the veterans bonds, with an option of cash. The plan was based on the present value of the certificates and, it was estimated, would save the government some $1,600,000,000. But if the veterans held their bonds until 1945, the maturity date of the certificates, interest would accumulate and they would receive approximately the same as if they held the certificates until 1935.

EPICS ADMIT MOVE MADE FOR RECALL

to force the will of a minority group on the assembly.

As a result of the move, the developing in the turbulent lower house a group of so-called liberal members issued an explanatory statement tonight which said, in part:

"The action of those opposing the passage of the budget before revenue has been provided is a protest against failure of the legislature to provide adequate old age pensions and other social security measures; a protest against the refusal of administration forces to cooperate with us in any reasonable legislation to assist in relieving the unemployment problem."

Pilot Is Killed As Stunting Ship Crashes To Earth

SEATTLE, May 24.—UP—An airplane in which Harold Brear, Seattle pilot, was instructing the owner, Ernest Bierman, in stunting flying, crashed to earth in a fall from 3,500 feet above Mount View golf course today.

Bierman leaped clear, 500 feet from the ground and his parachute carried him to safety. Brear, who had seized the controls in an effort to right the ship, was crushed to death as the plane buried its nose in a fairway.

Bierman said Brear told him to put the plane in a stall. It rolled over three times and went out of control.
